

+Weekly Reflection on The Word of God+

4th Sunday of Easter

It is a worthy meditation to reflect upon the dignity to which God has called us. There is a Jewish saying that in front of every human being stands an archangel who proclaims, "Fall on your knees before the image of the living God." When Jesus spoke of Himself being the Good Shepherd, He was applying that prophecy to Himself. He speaks in tremendously affectionate terms of His care and concern for His beloved flock. He calls them by name, for he knows them like no one else knows them. He will give his life for them. He will protect them from all dangers (especially the dangers of sin and death and alienation). Around the time of the Babylonian exile (587 B. C.), there was a theme that was very popular among the Prophets. It was that God had appointed shepherds to Israel, but these shepherds had misled God's people. Therefore, God Himself would be Israel's Shepherd and lead her in His own ways. One of the Scripture passages proclaimed during the "Feast of Dedication." In the Temple was Ezekiel's Scripture passage, God is proclaimed as our Shepherd.
