

+Weekly Reflection on The Word of God+
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The First Reading, from the Book of Deuteronomy, (which means the second law, and seems to have been written hundreds of years after many of the laws that had been given on Mount Sinai), is seen more and more as a prediction of a Messiah, fulfilling the promise Moses made to God's chosen people, and is one of the reasons why we see Moses in the Transfiguration. We learn that a prophet is not so much someone who foretells the future as much as someone who sees and speaks from God's viewpoint. Taking time to pray, fast, ask advice, etc., helps purify and discern our motives, uniting our intentions more closely to those of God. The unclean spirit, in today's Gospel, being a spiritual creature, knows the truth about Jesus. It's not confused by appearances, for it recognizes that Jesus is the Holy One of God. Jesus speaks with authority causing the unclean spirit to come out of a man who is possessed. People do not yet know who Jesus is, but they already know that something very Holy is happening in their midst.
