DEACON LINCOLN'S QUESTION BOX:

Q: What's wrong with me leaving the church immediately after receiving communion?

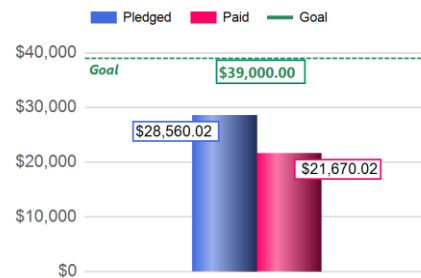

A. One question comes to mind. If you are asked for dinner by either family or friends, and you go, eat the dinner, then just get up and walk out, would that be polite? Of course not. Now that scenario is just food with family and friends. But here at Mass, you, we, just received The Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ. We should at least be thanking Him, asking Him to help us through our prayers and listening to the prayer after Communion which gives us the time to be aware of His Presence within us. If we have faith and truly believe it is Christ, what a precious time to spend in adoration with Jesus just after receiving Him. There are already statically over 60% of Catholics that doubt regarding The True Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Please consider not adding to this number and don't be one who wants to get out of the parking lot first.
