

+Weekly Reflection on The Word of God+ NINETEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY

Today's Gospel comes from the latter part of the first half of the "Bread of Life Discourse". Jesus identifies Himself as the "bread of life" that has descended from the heavens. Jesus is saying that He is the fulfillment of the promise, that He has come into the world, to instruct us as to who God is and what He wants of us. If we allow ourselves to be nourished by His instruction, then we will have eternal life. We must become that which we eat: the "Body of Christ". Just as the Holy Spirit makes holy the loaves on the altar to become the body of Christ, so also that same Holy Spirit makes us Holy to become the Mystical Body of Christ, reminding us that our Christian calling must be lived in our everyday events. We must be different in the way we treat people: with compassion and love and how one can taste the goodness of God and presents Himself as the "bread of life" that nourishes and satisfies our deepest hunger.

OCIA Note: The Conference of Catholic Bishops of the United States, has changed the name of RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation) to OCIA, Order of Christian Initiation for Adults “[The word] ‘order’ also reflects the progressive nature of this spiritual journey. OCIA is not a one-time event; it is a journey with distinct stages. OCIA is not one rite but varied rites that include a discovery stage, a learning and consideration stage, a deep reflection period, and continued learning and growing. And while there are rites integrated into the process of becoming Catholic, not all their timelines vary in length. Hence, OCIA more accurately depicts the varied rites’ different timelines.

A Registration will be held:

Saturday, August 24th at 3pm for

- Non-Catholics who want to find out more about the Catholic Faith
- Those who want to join the Catholic Church through Baptism, or Profession of Faith
- Those who were baptized Catholic as infants but never received religious education, Confirmation, or First Eucharist.

Thank you for your generous support of the Parish

Join fellow parishioners in putting our faith into action! Next Sunday, August 17 & 18, we will participate in the Second Collection for Second Chances.

(A fundraiser that happens at parishes in our Archdiocese dedicated to supporting Catholic Charities as they help people who need a second chance in their own lives.)

SECOND Chances

"Then Peter came to Him and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven."

Matthew 8:21-22

"Then Peter came to Him and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times? Jesús said to him, I do not say to you up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.: Matthew 8:21-22

"Let us pray for the noble initiatives of Catholic Charities and those in our community who are seeking second chances as they rebuild their lives and pursue within our community."
