

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

It is in the Gospel of Mark that we see most clearly how Jesus overturns the values of our society. Power, prestige, and wealth are no longer important. What is most important is our willingness to express our love in service of others. These truths make no sense in the logic of this world; there is a greater wisdom, however, that St. Paul calls the "Wisdom of the Cross" Jesus tells His disciples that the greatest in the kingdom is not the one who is served by others, but rather the one who serves.
