

THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The main theme of today's Mass is to love God and to love one's neighbor. It is a good opportunity to remind ourselves that love is not an emotion, it is a good opportunity to choose. We do not always receive consolation for making that choice, but we find peace when we truly love with our heart, soul, and strength. It is often difficult to balance love of God with love of neighbor. Should we spend our time praying or serving the poor? Should we dedicate our time to our family or to our church community? We will always be torn between these calls while we are upon this earth.
