

+Weekly Reflection on The Word of God+

It is tempting to avoid consideration of the mystery of death and dying, as this calls to mind losses we have experienced as well as the prospect of our mortality. And yet, our readings for today remind us that we are called to face the reality of death with hope, wisely recognizing the longing within us to be in God's holy presence and the necessity of making ourselves ready for this anticipated future. Take time with a loved one to reflect together on the mystery of death and the promise of eternal life. Name those you have known who have prepared well for their death and consider what you can learn from their example.
